

East Iowa Heirloom Quilters

Cedar Rapids, Iowa

EIHQ was organized in October 1980, for the purpose of promoting the art of quilt making & related projects, and conducting educational programs on the design & technique of making heirloom & modern quilts.

President's Corner

October 2016

Dear Members,

Weather is getting cooler; leaves are starting to change colors. Mums are putting a splash of color on porches. What a wonderful time of year. The Guild just had another wonderful retreat. The machines were humming, the members were chatting and lots of things were getting made. The Hostesses did a wonderful job of making it a very special time for all. Thank you very much for your hard work.

Now another very special time is coming and it is the October meeting. I hope all who plan to come have a wonderful time. This is something different, and different can be very exciting. This is the time to say thank you to the board members who will be stepping down. Time to vote new ones on. I thank everyone for their help and all their hard work to keep our Guild running and strong. It takes a lot of volunteers to do all we do. Please think of helping and stepping up when we need you.

Sincerely,
Suzanne Halley

"Murder at Pieceful Lake"

A dozen quilting friends, together for a weekend at a snowy lake retreat -- what could go wrong??!! There is a MURDER in the lodge! Pieceful Lake isn't so peaceful after all.

As we hear each of the quilters' stories unfold, you'll learn some of the wacky nuances of quilt show politics. The drama builds as these gals reveal their secrets, their private vulnerabilities, and their potential motives for a sinister crime. Is it revenge, jealousy, blackmail, love, or lust that drives one of the quilters to murder? The story keeps you in suspense, and a real quilt is assembled in the process. Murder at Pieceful Lake keeps you guessing right until the end.

Come join the quilters in the lodge for an evening of dining and mayhem -- it's a stitch!

The catered meal starts at 6:00 pm. Remember, you must have your ticket to attend!

SOS will be sewing in the morning at the American Legion...stop by anytime after 9:30 am

NOVEMBER 28, 2016

Welcome speakers from groups who have received quilts from SOS
Workshop: Sew-in
9:30 am

Join us as we assemble President's Challenge blocks into quilts for the November Workshop!

Imagine, you are a young woman, with a 3-year-old son, your husband has died, you've lost everything and you have to go to a homeless shelter. Then imagine that the lady there tells you that you get to pick out a quilt for your son, and in your mind you can't come to grips with this, you think it's a bad joke, and you're waiting for the punchline. You finally believe what she is saying and pick out a quilt. She then tells you that when you leave, you get to take it with you. You break down and cry saying that you have never been given anything so beautiful in your life. Imagine.

Now imagine, thanks to some very generous people who read about their shelter, the Catholic Worker House, in their newsletter, that when the shelter helps you get an apartment, that the apartment is fully furnished with items donated by the good people who read that newsletter. Imagine.

If you have any items that you no longer need, that could help furnish someone else's apartment, call the Catholic Worker House, 362-9041. They are located at 1027 5th Avenue SE, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. It goes without saying, you generous, wonderful people rock!

In addition, during the month of September, you donated 23 finished quilts, 32 quilt tops (some with backing material), a doll quilt, 3 pillowcases, and fabric...backing sizes and smaller.

We will be meeting on October 19, at the Knights of Columbus, 1620 E Avenue NE, at 9:30, for another great day of sewing and tying quilts and noshing on our award winning potluck lunch. Come for all, or any part of the day, whatever fits your schedule. We will also be doing the same on the day of the October meeting, starting at 9:30, but you will be on your own for lunch.

Our needs continue to be bed-sized quilts: baby/crib, twin, full and queen. Don't forget the LINN COUNTY SLEEP OUT FOR THE HOMELESS, October 29-30, starting at 3:00 pm, at the Vets Memorial Stadium, 950 Rockwell Road SW. All shelters and related organizations will benefit from the raffles and other fundraising efforts.

Thanks again for your hard efforts and generosity, and keep on quilting!
Mary Burgess, Diane Eimen and Suzanne Mullins

Freedom Stitchers of Iowa

Freedom Stitchers of Iowa!

As I write this (late for submission, but Debbie is a sweetheart to us when we lose our mind) .... I am putting the finishing touches on preparations for our Quilt of Valor® Presentation on Saturday (8th). Sixteen Veterans will be awarded the beautiful quilts your Freedom Stitchers of Iowa have made! What an incredible honor it is to award them.

Any of you hear our QOV Area Coordinator, Ralph Osenbaugh, on WMT Radio this morning talking about the Presentation? He did such a good job that I had several phone calls from interested folks who want to come!!! THANX to Ralph!!

Upcoming, after Saturday, I will be awarding two quilts on Sunday (at Garnett Place), Ralph will award another one on Monday, and probably several other Private Presentations before November 19 when we will award another 15 Veterans at Cedar Memorial West. Onward and upward --- the more folks who learn about QOV, the more Veterans we learn about and we need more quilts to award.

Your help is certainly appreciated. By the first of the year (possibly Nov. Guild Meeting), my plan is to have some kits made up for you. Kits will consist of individual blocks that you may purchase to sew. To the blocks, you may add your own sashing and borders to end up with a patriotic top that is approximately 60x80. Freedom Stitchers of Iowa members will take it from there and quilt and bind them so they are available to present anytime we need a quilt to award. Your name as "piecer" will be on the label. Again, your help is certainly appreciated.

I found some new and beautiful panels at the AQS Show in Des Moines today. They also will be available at the November meeting..

Enjoy the October meeting; I will not be able to be there, so ... if you have anything to get to me, please give it to Karen Kruse. Karen as thoughtfully and thankfully volunteered to be my "right-hand-woman". THANK YOU, Karen!!

AND ..... THANK YOU to all the Guild. Your support is unwavering - and so is my appreciation!!!

Thanx!

Elayne - 319-551-4492

Fat Quarter Lottery

Bring one (or more) quilt-shop-quality fat quarter to the morning or evening meeting. For every fat quarter you bring, your name is included in a drawing for a chance to win a stack of fat quarters!

Remember: No FQL in October or December

Membership News

It's that time of year again!

Our fiscal year is coming to an end on September 30, and a new year begins October 1. Dues are being accepted now and must be paid in order to vote for new officers at the October Guild meeting.

Dues are still $30 for the entire year. That's just $2.50 per month! Membership includes informative meetings each month, early registration for trips and retreats, discounts from some advertisers, and digital newsletters delivered to your email inbox*.

*Membership is $40 at this time if you wish to receive a paper newsletter. As printing and postage costs continue to increase, we may have to increase the charge in the future for the paper newsletter.

EIHQ Snow Policy

If the Cedar Rapids Community School District (CRCSD) cancels classes due to weather, then the EIHQ will not meet. If the CRCSD runs on a 2-hour delay, EIHQ will hold the workshop beginning at 1:00 pm and the evening meeting. If the CRCSD lets school out early, there will not be an evening meeting.

President's Block Guild Challenge

Here's the next block in the 2016 Guild Block of the Month, in case you missed it at the last meeting!

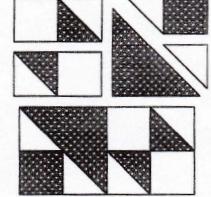

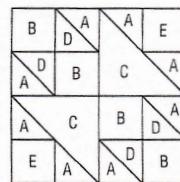

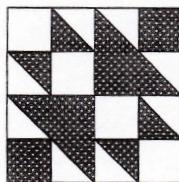

The September Block, Double X #3, is shown at the right. Simply make two blocks, one for YOU in your favorite colorway and one for SOS in red, white & blue (or use whatever you have in your stash; SOS can make quilts with ANY colors).

If you have any questions, simply contact Shanna Cellman (scellman@mchsi.com) or Debbie Wordehoff (dwordehoff@gmail.com).

Upcoming:

November, 2106: Food Drive—Let's support our local food pantries! Bring any two non-perishable items to the November meetings.

December, 2016: Just a reminder—there is NO December meeting or newsletter. Take a break, relax, enjoy the holidays!

January, 2017: Everyone will have a chance to redistribute the quilting wealth and good stuff—better known as a Garage Sale. Tables can be reserved at the November meeting or by mail before January 10th; $15 per table.

Even if you don't plan to participate in the Garage Sale, the January meetings will still provide plenty of quilty fun! Show & Tell, SOS and a plethora (yes, I said a PLETHORA!) of fascinating demonstrations! Stay tuned for more details....

PROGRAMS

MEETING PRESENTATIONS AND WORKSHOPS

November 28, 2017

(Please bring a non-perishable food item to the November guild meeting)

This month we are focusing on SOS and giving back. The following organizations have received quilts from SOS. Representatives from HACAP, ABBE Center, Habitat for Humanity, and Families Helping Families will be speaking to our guild.

9:00 am Meeting

Hawkeye Area Community Action Program (HACAP) is a diverse, community-focused nonprofit dedicated to the sustained improvement of human life in our communities. HACAP focuses on 5 initiatives, which provide solutions to locally identified issues. These five initiatives, Food & Nutrition, Veteran Support, Energy Conservation, Children, and Homelessness are comprised of over 20 programs focused on community betterment and individual self-sustainability.

ABBE Center Representatives from the Penn Center and Aging Service will be speaking to our guild about their programs as well as other groups, including Milestones Adult Daycare and Linn County Daycare.

6:30 pm Meeting

Habitat for Humanity “At Habitat for Humanity, we build. We build because we believe that everyone, everywhere, should have a healthy, affordable place to call home. More than building homes, we build communities, we build hope and we build the opportunity for families to help themselves.”

Families Helping Families FHF’s mission is to meet the needs of youth who have been abused or neglected to allow them to have the same chance as their peers to be healthy and productive citizens.

A Note from Nancy:

Dear Inspirations Friends,

I have decided to retire next year. This is a few years earlier than my original plan but I am looking forward to spending more time with my family. I will miss seeing all of you at the shop. You've helped make Inspirations a great success. I've appreciated your patronage as customers as well as your participation in clubs and classes. Your talents and conversations have made Inspirations a very special place to be.

It would be wonderful if someone were interested in taking over the shop. There is a lot of potential for making this space your own. Please contact me by email or stop in if you are interested.
